

ST. MONTFORT SCHOOL CELEBRATED EID-UL-ADHA

Eid-UI-Adha also known as Eid-UI-Zuha was celebrated in the school premises, keeping in mind the significance of the festival. The festival marks the end of Hajj and involves animal sacrifices as a symbol of Ibrahim's willingness to sacrifice his son as a sign of devotion to Allah.

Students of class XI presented significant skit showing why and how the festival is celebrated. The day begins with prayers and then wishing 'Eidmubarak' to one another. The sacrifice is divided into three parts i.e. First for poor and needy; second for friends and relatives and third for the family.

The celebration ended with singing a Naath (prayer song) and request to help the needy and people struck by natural calamity.
