

ST.MONTFORT SCHOOL, PATEL NAGAR, BHOPAL

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION OF THE PILLARS OF OUR NATION

“Be the change that you wish to see in the world”

-by Mahatma Gandhi

Gandhi Ji built his life's work around the moral values to recognize the humanity of all people. He also believed in fighting against injustice and to embrace non-violence.

Today on 1 Oct. St.Montfort School commenced the assembly with the lighting of the lamp by our Principal Rev. Bro. Monachan K.K. and Rev. Bro. Bala Joseph, coordinator and paid a floral tribute to the great leaders – the father of our Nation, Mahatma Gandhi and the great motivator, Lal BhadurShastri to mark their birthdays.

With the belief of planting the seeds of the values of Gandhi Ji and Shastri Ji, St.Montfort School,Bhopal organized “SarvdharamPrathana” i.e the prayers of different religions Children and teachers participated in these religious prayers with devotion. To commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of the father of our nation Mahatma Gandhi, our school is celebrating a week, of mass reading or “SamuhikVachan” of Gandhiji'sBook “Hind Swaraj” from (25 Sept -2 Oct) .The book embodies the lifelong researches of the greatest exponent of non-violence .The reading of the book during the morning assembly is very effective as the children listen intently and try to imbibe the values in them.On 2nd Oct SarvdharamPrarthana, lectures on Gandhi's thoughts, and beliefs were held.Children participated enthusiastically in such discussion.A movie on Gandhi Ji was also telecast for the children and staff on this occasion. A two days camp of Scout and Guide wasorganized on 1st and 2nd October. The scouts and Guide learnt various values on these days and are enriched with the knowledge imparted in this occasion.

Rev.Bro. Monachan K.K. addressed the school and advised the children to abide by the values of Lal BhahdurShastri that is to be strong as a wall with our values and erect a strong nation and also implant the values within us to keep peace and harmony all around and have a healthy environment. ThePrincipal also told the children to take an oath of making St.MontfortSchool a plastic free campus .He wants St.Montfort School,Bhopal to take the initiative of “No Plastic Campus” from 2nd October 2019.

On this beautiful occasion variety of Programmes were organized for the children. Classes (I-II) had Hindi speech competition (III-V) Englishstory telling competition was held, classes (VI-VIII) had group rangoli competition and (IX-X) had Hindi Extempore.The day was spent fruitfully as the children participated in these competitions.