

SARVADHARAM PRAYER SERVICE-2018

“Faith makes all things possible. Peace makes all things silent. Prayer makes all the things beautiful.”

The Scout and Guide team of St. Montfort School Patel Nagar Bhopal, under the able guidance of Principal Rev. Brother Monachank.k. , organized a Sarvadharam prayer service in the School premises on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti Celebration. Birth anniversary of father of our nation Mahatma Gandhi and former P.M. LalBahadurShastri was celebrated in a sacred manner and homage was payedby garlanding their photographs and floral tributes were given by Principal and Co-ordinators

Programme began by lighting of the lamp by the Principal Rev. Brother Monachan, Vice Principal Rev. Brother John, Co-ordinators and Scout and Guide team. A series of different prayers of various religious community involving students and teachers was followed by a common pious prayer which wished for the unity and integrity of all the religion and universal brotherhood.

The programme was concluded by an addressal by the Principal who said that he considers this occasion to be one of the most beautiful occasion. He said Prayer is a important part of every ones life because faith is a personal choice, prayer is an important to maintain fraternity, unity and peace among all. We can feel God’s presence in every individual and before becoming a Hindu or Muslim or Christian first of all we should be good human beings.

At the end students of Class VI presented a dance drama giving the universal message to save water, keeping clean and green earth.