REPORT ON DAD AND ME SHOW

"A father is the one friend upon whom we can always rely". A father always has to think once for himself and twice for his son. St. Montfort school Bhopal took the initiative and gave the opportunity to all the effortless father's of kindergarten to enjoy every moment of today's function with their child in Dad and Me Show 2023 organised on 4th November for class KGII students along with their father.

A moment a very respected Rev. Brother Gregory Baa, Rev Brother Jojo, Brother Vijay & welcomed all the father's with their children and appreciated for their participation. It was a day dedicated to all the father's those who want to come out with their hidden talents, Certain activities like dance fashion show ,best out of waste fireless cooking ,and singing there such playful activities where arranged for them.

Both father and their children they both were dressed up with the beautiful matching attires. With this actually a true bonding is clearly visible between the father and the child, Due to such programs the coordination, presentation will be judged between the father and a child then the winners were selected on the basis of these categories and rewarded with the trophies. We ended with enjoying games like musical chair and tug of war were also arranged for our father's to check their stamina.

Before giving a final touch to a program our, Head mistress Sister Greeta and Coordinator Mrs. Shiney ma'am greeted everyone with the vote of thanks and the day was ended up with huge smile on their faces.
