REPORT: SPELLATHON COMPETITION

DATE: 20 April 2024

VENUE: PE ROOM

“Words cast spells. That’s why it’s called spelling.”

A Spellathon Competition was organized at St. Montfort School, Bhopal on 26th November, 2022 by English Club for classes VI-VIII. Two participants from each section were selected by the class teachers.

The competition was organized to give students a platform to study spellings and enrich their vocabulary in different ways by encouraging them to explore the English language and improve their communication and comprehensive skills.

A notice informing the students regarding the competition had been circulated in each class intimating the students about the rules, guidelines and paper format of the competition. Worksheets were provided to the participants, which was divided into three sections namely, Dictation words, Jumbled Words and One Word.

Participants were quite elated for the event. They had prepared themselves in various ways to race ahead of others in the competition. Students participated with great enthusiasm and they contested through the toughest words. This competition was a wonderful learning source not only for the participants but also for their peers.
