

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION 2025

The Children's Day celebration on 14th November 2025 during a special morning assembly organized by the teachers at St. Montfort School truly reflected love, laughter, and the spirit of childhood – reminding everyone that children are the true treasures of our nation.

The event was dedicated to honoring the birth anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, who is fondly remembered for his love and affection towards children.

The programme commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp and the garlanding of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru's portrait by the Principal, Rev. Bro. Monachan K.K., marking an auspicious beginning to the celebration. A special prayer followed, invoking divine blessings for the well-being and happiness of all students. The school teachers' choir presented a melodious prayer song, filling the atmosphere with positivity and reverence.

A teacher then addressed the gathering on the importance of the day, highlighting the vision and ideals of Pandit Nehru and reminding everyone about the significance of nurturing the young minds of our nation.

The cultural programme, conducted by the teachers, was both entertaining and meaningful. It began with a vibrant dance performance that set a cheerful tone for the day. This was followed by an engaging skit that conveyed the message of friendship, innocence, and the spirit of childhood. To add an element of fun and laughter, the teachers also organized a game activity that brought smiles to every student's face.

The programme concluded with a finale dance performance, where teachers showcased their talent and expressed their affection for the students through lively moves and music.

After the performances, the Principal of the school addressed the students with inspiring words. He appreciated the teachers for their efforts in organizing such a delightful programme and encouraged students to continue learning with joy, curiosity, and kindness.

The event ended with a vote of thanks proposed by the Head Girl and Assistant Head Girl of the school, who expressed gratitude to the Principal, teachers, and staff for making the day memorable. The celebration concluded on a patriotic note with the rendition of the National Anthem.
