

ST.MONTFORT SCHOOL, BHOPAL

BLESSING DAY 2019

A festive look all around with eye catching decorations in the campus of St. Montfort School Patel Nagar, Bhopal on 19th of January 2019, was to witness the “Blessing Day” on the theme “Masquerade” outgoing batch for celebrating the beginning of a new journey out of the school campus.

In today’s dynamic world a holistic grooming is of supreme importance and the school ensures an environment paving way for the future citizens, entrepreneurs and professionals who possess knowledge skills and attitude in an array of functional discipline to face the world.

Students were elegantly cladded in sarees and suits. Ambience all around was pleasing and the programme started with a prayer and lighting of lamp followed by welcome addressal by the Asst. Head Boy Rushaan Rana and Asst. Head girl Neha Sharma. Interesting real school life situation were presented in a very dramatic way through mime by eleventh class students.

The outgoing batch was touched by the words of Principal

Rev.Brother Monachan when he said that armour in their life against all odds would be the value they imbibed in Montfort.

He said that world full of opportunities, the need is to grab it at the right moment. The value of time management and humility was also reflected in his addressal.

School Head boy Arjun Sarkar and school Head Girl Manasvi Singh Parihar paid gratitude to Principal Rev.Brother Monachan, Vice Principal Rev.Brother John Minj, coordinators, Parents ,teaching and non-teaching staff and all the junior.

As a token of love the twelthies also presented gifts to the school.

Mr. Joseph father of a student Mervin Joseph addressed the students. On behalf of all the teaching faculty Mrs. Sweety Kumbhare blessed the children for future endeavor.

Ambience was filled with joy and moves with few dance numbers and band performance. Main attraction for the day was guiding light ceremony.

Entire scenario moved many to tears when the guiding light ceremony started. Motive behind the blessings days is that the parents stepped into temple of learning with their small kids 14 years back and handed over to the school and the teachers, after 14 years teachers hand over the grown up kids embedding the domains - knowledge, skills and attitudes that make a true Monfortian, back to the parents.

Ambience remained nostalgic and the pain of the golden days getting over was quite evident on the faces of the children. The moist imprint of memories lingered on the pallor of the parents while blessings. Principal Rev .Brother Monachan lighted the candles of teachers and the teachers furthered lighted the candles of the children thus spreading of the light wisdom in the world.

The prestigious title of Mr. Montfort and Miss Montfort was given to Mast. Arjun Sarkar and Miss Manasvi Singh Parihar respectively.

Most disciplined students throughout was Mast Karthik Pillai.

Punctuality is always a need for to become a successful individual and Mast. Mervin Joseph was declared as the most punctual student of session 2018-19.

In overall category the trophy for students of the year was given to Miss Aditi Singh Thakur.

Later on all the students took blessings from Principal and teachers their guiding lights.
