

ST.MONTFORT SCHOOL
CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION 2K18

Love and gratitude always go hand in hand and hence to show their love and concern towards children, teachers of St.Montfort School Bhopal celebrated the birthday of the first Prime Minister Pt.JawaharLal Nehru, as Children's Day in the School premises.

It was a bright day with birds chirping all around when the teachers' were on stage and children as audience. This fulfilled day started lighting of the lamp, by the school Principal Rev. Brother Monachan,School Vice- principal Rev Brother John Minj,Co-ordinator Sr.Anlit,Sr.Nikita and Mrs. Jyotivibin Nair.Floral tribute was also given to ChachaNehru,which was followed by Prayer Dance. Programmes included solo songs, a theme based skit which gave the message for the children to have "Roots of responsibility with the wings of independence."

Main attraction of the programme were the words of encouragement by the Principal. He said that students should be smart enough to know their importance and take responsibility of the nation,they should understand and realize their parents' hard work to make them good citizens, they should utilize all the opportunities and work hard enough to lift up their country.Brother Monachan also gave his sincere thanks to all teachers for organizing there, marvelous programme. Programme ended up with a breath taking dance in the form of grand finale.

Vote of thanks was delivered by the school Head Boy Master ArjunSarkar, who thanked the teacher for their tireless effort in the making of each student.