

ST. MONTFORT SCHOOL, BHOPAL

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION 2018

A festive look with bells streamers, gifts and beautifully decorated Christmas tree, this was the scene in St. Montfort School Bhopal on 22nd Dec 18 for the celebration of Christmas. The Festive of sharing and loving, Christmas was celebrated in the campus with great enthusiasm and fervor to commemorate the birth of Jesus Christ .

Programme started with a prayer song which was followed by a dance number by dancing tycoons, the tiny tots of the schools.

The students also presented a few melodious prize winning carols exhibiting the nativity scene performed in the interschool and Intra school competitions held during the month.

Hindi medium students danced on feet tapping number expressing their joy filling the air with Christmas festivity. Principal Rev. Brother Monachan in his Christmas message conveyed that all the religion preach of the love, peace, humanity and happiness.

The highlight of the programme was the display of pantomime by students displaying a message of peace in the universe

Entire premises shined Christmas Tree, light, stars and everyone's heart was filled with peace, happiness and contentment. This concluding of fruitful year 2018 thanking God for all bounties and blessing.