

St.Montfort community Service Programme:
Step Towards Self Reliance

St.Montfort Community Service Center Jahngirabad Bhopal, is an extension programme run by the Br.of St.Gabriel, Montfort Chain of Schools, to help the women and children of the society. On 12th Oct 2018 at 2:00pm, the trainees of Beauty Parlour Course took their exam which was adjudged by a four member committee comprising of Rev.Bro.John Minj,Mrs. Meenakshi Sharma,Mrs. Geeta Khare and Mr. Ajay Nipunge of St.Montfort Sr.Sec School Bhopal.

The Programme commenced with a prayer followed by an introduction rendered by Smt. Sangeeta Yadav, Organizer of the Community center who informed that a team of 15 efficient trained teachers are involved in teaching Courses like Mehandi, Stitching and Tailoring, Beauty Parlor and Adult Education. A Balwadi is also functional for the under privileged children.

The beauticians exhibited their skills on volunteers by beautifully decorating them as traditional brides. The criteria for judging the participants of this competition were confidence, Mehandi Design, Hair Style,Make-up and File Work.Rev Bro.John Minj encouraged them by distributing prizes to all the participants .While addressing he stated that the skills learnt by the trainees would make them self-reliant and confident.

Rev.Bro.John appreciated the teachers and congratulated the beauticians and wished them a bright future ahead. The event concluded by a vote of thanks accorded by the Center Head Mrs. Sangeeta Yadav
