

VISIT OF ASSISTANT GENERAL, BROTHER OF ST. GABRIEL

“Knowledge is power. Information is liberating. Education is the premise of progress, in every society, in every family.”

The premises of St. Montfort School, Bhopal was blessed by the presence of Rev. Brother Pratap Reddy, Assistant General, Brother of St. Gabriel who was on his official visit to India from Rome, Italy on 13th August 2019. Rev. Bro. James Ekka, Provincial Superior, Delhi Province also graced the occasion.

A man of immense knowledge motivated the children to create a society at large which is academically, socially, emotionally as well as spiritually strong. He appreciated the children for presenting soulful prayer dance and song welcoming him. He encouraged the students with his warm and motivating words. He appreciated the children for depicting meaningful acts based on water conservation and women empowerment. His words of wisdom not only created ripples among the students but also among the teachers. He advised the children not only to develop their IQ but various quotients like emotional quotient, spiritual quotient and social quotient. Rev. Brother Pratap Reddy inspired the students to feel proud to be a Monfortian as they are a part of a huge international family and to be successful and contented human. He blessed and wished the children for their future.

The afternoon session with Rev. Bro. Pratap Reddy was an interactive session with the teachers dealing with the different day to day situations that the teacher's face. The honourable guest advised the teachers to not only be a good teacher but also a great teacher who loves his/her students. He also mentioned that teachers should come up with innovative techniques to reach the heart of each and every child. He inspired the teachers and appreciated them for choosing this noble profession.
